Homecoming Day

Strictly according to form, today's game may not be generally figured as the tingling, give-and-take variety that ages coaches and forecasters and elates alumni. But there is enough evidence in Tulane's past Homecoming parties and in the Greenies' bygone battles with Alabama to indicate that almost anything could occur.

Today's meeting is the first since 1950 between the Green Wave and the Crimson Tide. They originally played in 1894, however, and in the 60 years since then the rivalry has produced some unusually thrilling moments. Alabama holds a 16-6-1 edge on the all-time scoreboard, despite dropping three of five clashes in the particular spectacular series that began in 1946.

That year Hugh Morrow's extra point meant a 7-6 margin for Harry Gilmerled 'Bama against surprisingly strong opposition. The following season it was Tulane by a point, 21-20, as Eddie Price returned a kickoff 103 yards for one touchdown and his brother-in-law, Ray Prats, scored two more. Ed Heider's three traight conversions were most important, too.

In 1948 the running of Bobby Jones, the passing of Joe Ernst and the punting of Euel Davis brought the Greenies in, 21-14.

And in 1949 Bill Svoboda's 87-yard kickoff return featured Tulane's 28-14 triumph at Mobile. Alabama got partial revenge in 1950, winning 26-14 on three TD passes from Ed Salem to Al Lary.

That close enough? Then consider the games of 1937 and 1938, when it took field goals by Hayward Sanford and Vic Bradford for 9-6 and 3-0 'Bama decisions.

Those were memorable skirmishes and today's may be added to them — particularly in the minds of 11 Greenie seniors who will be in on their final Homecoming as undergraduates. They are Captain Eddie Bravo, Alternate Captain Ray Price, Harry Duvigneaud, Ed McCool, Charlie Pittman, Charlie Coates, Jim Partridge, Ray Hymel, Dave McMurrain, Tommy Ford and Doug Woodruff.

As for the other Greenies, they have more of such Saturdays ahead of them, including the three additional renewals with Alabama the current contract calls for.

The University

Tulane University is the only private, non-denominational institution of higher learning offering a full university program in a ninestate area extending from California to the Atlantic Seaboard and embracing New Mexico, Arizona, Texas, Oklahoma, Aikansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Florida

The University's geographical location has led to a natural emphasis upon a region which includes the Gulf States, much of the Mississippi Valley and a large portion of Latin America. This means that in addition to the basic work of the University, Tulane undertakes specialized instruction and research which no other institution is in a position to perform so well.

The University comprises the College of Arts and Sciences, Newcomb College for women, University College (adult education) and the Schools of Law, Engineering, Medicine, Social Work, Business Administration, Architecture, and Graduate studies. In addition, the Middle American Research Institute, the Urban Life Research Institute, the Comparative Law Institute, the Engineering Research Institute, and the Summer Schools round out its program.

President of the University is Dr. Rufus Carrollton Harris.

The student body of approximately 4,000 fulltime students and some 2,000 others who are taking courses in the field of graduate medicine, University College and other divisions, is drawn from most of the states of the union and from more than a score of foreign countries.

Tulane had its beginning in 1834, when seven young physicians banded together to combat yellow fever and cholera, the city's twin curses of that period. In 1855 the State Constitution established in New Orleans the University of Louisiana with departments of Law, Medicine and Natural Sciences, and Letters.

The University received its name from Paul Tulane of Princeton, N. J., who made his fortune in and around New Orleans and who donated $1,000,000 to the institution in 1882. His gift, made at a time when the South was financially bankrupt as a result of Civil War, provided a revenue which revived a virtually moribund institution. Through his gift a reorganization of the university was completed. It was separated from the state and its affairs were entrusted to a self-perpetuating board of administrators.

In 1886 Mrs. Josephine Louise Newcomb donated to the Tulane Educational Fund the sum of $100,000 to be used in establishing the H. Sophie Newcomb Memorial Fund College in the Tulane University of Louisiana in honor of her daughter. She subsequently gave more than $3,000,000 through gifts and her will. These gifts enabled the Tulane administrators to round out the ideal of the University by creation of an institution which would give to women all the educational advantages which before had been offered only to men

The campus of a hundred acres is located on St. Charles Avenue, facing Audubon Park, one of the most beautiful in the South.

Tulane Stadium

Tulane Stadium, a massive double-decked structure of steel and concrete, is famous as the home of the Green Wave football teams and of the annual Sugar Bowl Classic. It has an official seating capacity of 80,975.

The stadium is located on the site of the old Etienne de Boré plantation, where sugar was first granulated in this country. It is bounded by Willow and Calhoun streets, Audubon Boule-

yard and South Claiborne Avenue

Tulane Stadium was dedicated October 23, 1926, with east and west side stands of reinforced concrete seating some 35,000. In the dedication game Auburn defeated Tulane by the margin of a safety, 2-0. Since then the stadium has been the scene of many memorable touchdowns and the making of important athletic history.

The original stadium was constructed with the financial assistance of the people of New Orleans and vicinity, in recognition of the Green Wave achievements of the early 1920's. More than 6,000 crizens donated $300,000 in a drive completed in just five days.

Enlargements and improvements of the huge arena have been due largely to efforts of the New Orleans Mid-Winter Sports Association, sponsor of the annual Sugar Bowl Classic. The Sugar Bowlers' investment at Tulane amounts to more than $1,250,000.

The first Sugar Bowl game was played January 1, 1935, when Tulane defeated Temple in a 20-14 thriller. An 85-yard touchdown run by Tulane's Claude (Little Monk) Simons was the day's highlight.

The Sugar Bowlers' first step in the enlargement program was taken in 1937 when 14,000 North stand seats were erected through a financial arrangement with the Tulane University Board of Administrators at a cost of $150,000 In 1939 they followed with a debenture bond issue of $550,000 to double-deck the structure and boost its capacity to 69,000. Then in 1947 another bond issue of $500,000 was offered to enlarge the massive bowl to its present capacity.

Stadium improvements have included permanent box seats, portal seats, two electric score-boards, an electric time flasher, an elevator to the press box and a photographer's roof.

The press box, which has been voted among the nation's best by the Football Writers Association, is 240 feet in length and seats 254 in swivel chairs. There are five booths for radio broadcasting.

Herbert A. Benson served as stadium enlargement architect and A. N. Goldberg as contractor.

Tulane Songs

ALMA MATER

We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater! Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully; The incense of thy spirit hath ascended And filled America from sea to sea!

We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater! Today thy children look to thee for bread! Thou leadest them to dreams and action splendid! The hunger of their souls is richly fed!

We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We shall ever be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou will be where e'er thy children are!

Chorus

Olive Green and Blue, we love thee. Pledge we now our fealty true Where the trees are ever greenest, Where the skies are purest blue. Hear us now. O Tulanc hear us. As we proudly sing to thee! Take from us our heart's devotion! Thine we are, and thine shall be!

ROLL ON, TULANE

Here's a song for the Olive and the Blue Here's a cheer for the team that's tried and true Here's a pledge of loyalty to thee. Oh, Tulane Varsity Here's to the Greenbacks that never will say die. And here's to the hearts that are true To the men of Tulane who are fighting for her name, For the Olive and the Blue

Chorus

Roll, Green Wave,
Roll them down the field
Hold, Green Wave,
That line must never yield
When those Greenbacks charge through the line
They're bound for victory
Hail, Green Wave,
For you we give a cheer
Hall, Green Wave,
For you we have no fear
So ev'ry man in ev'ry play,
And then we'll win that game today
Hurrah for Old Tulane!
